

Inclusive business practices take centre stage in a new ESCAP report, launched on the occasion of International Day of Persons with Disabilities.

READ MORE

www.giftabled.sg

APAC NEWS

The report provides an overview of the status of disability-inclusive business practices, showcasing numerous successful examples from both within the region and beyond.

www.giftabled.sg

APAC NEWS

Data from the International Labour Organization reveals that the median labour force participation rate for 23 countries and territories in the Asia-Pacific region is 24 per cent for Persons with Disabilities compared to 60 per cent for persons without.

Gift Able

Fostering Inclusion

APAC NEWS

This approach involves actively engaging Persons with Disabilities as leaders, employees, consumers, suppliers/distributors, subject experts and valued stakeholders. Removing barriers to the full participation of persons with disabilities in all aspects of business is essential.

www.giftabled.sg